

Paul's Daily Routine

Hi, I am Paul. I'm sixteen years old and I am Barbadian. I live with my family in a big house in Christ Church in the south of Barbados.

I am a morning person so my day usually starts quite early. I always wake up at 6:30am on weekdays but on weekends, I wake up an hour later. When I get up, I go to the bathroom first, I wash my face to wake me up, brush my teeth and then I take a shower. After that, I brush my hair and get dressed for school from Monday to Friday. I always have breakfast with my mum and my little brother. I usually have a bowl of cornflakes with milk, some toast and I usually drink a cup of tea.

I usually take the bus to go to school or sometimes, my mother takes me to school by car. Classes usually begin at 8:45am and end at 2:45pm. I like Maths the best but I am also good at Geography and Art. However, I hate French because it is difficult for me. When school finishes, I return home around 3:30pm.

Before dinner, I usually watch television or I do my homework. I seldom read because I find it boring but I love playing video games. My family usually has dinner around 7:30 pm and I often set the table.

Around 8:30, I usually take a shower and then I go to bed at 9:00pm. Before I go to sleep, I usually listen to music because it makes me feel relaxed.
